

MISSOURI FEDERATION OF ANIMAL OWNERS

The MISSOURI FEDERATION OF ANIMAL OWNERS (MoFed) was formed in the early 1990's to help protect the rights of animal owners and enthusiasts against the devastating effects of the animal rights movement. Among their successes, MoFed has:

- Lobbied the state legislature, governor's office and members of Congress to eliminate detrimental legislation and to pass positive legislation for animal owners
- Joined forces with agriculture groups to file a lawsuit as the plaintiff against Prop B
- Worked side by side with agriculture interests to defeat animal rights proposals
- Defended property rights and animal ownership in courts of law
- Represented animal owners in testimony to state government, county commissions and city councils
- Networked with other organizations across the US to show united fronts
- Advised many new organizations on effective ways to fight animal rights proposals
- Soundly defeated multiple issues proposed by animal rights activists
- Been published in many editorials, letters to the editors and magazine articles
