We've Been Sacked by the Humane Society

by Joe ‘The Plumber’ Wurzelbacher

While Americans across the country have entered the political game to save our country, moving that proverbial ball of freedom towards the end zone, we've been sacked. Blindsided. We've been so focused on legislative elections (and rightly so) that most Americans don't even know they've been hit – and hit hard.

But not by some big, burly monster like voter fraud or corruption. No, we've been knocked flat by the ignorance of the conservative electorate and cute little puppies licking our stunned, what-the-heck-just-happened faces.

Well, I'll tell you what just happened.

It's called the Humane Society of the United States cowardly hiding behind animal cruelty, lying to our citizens and taking our constitutional rights away – one state at a time.

This radical animal rights organization (HSUS), who spends less than 0.5% of its $100M + budget on actually helping animals, is using the referendum process to slowly, systematically eliminate food production in the United States.
